Outstanding Seminarians Receive 2011 Chalice Press Book Awards

ST. LOUIS, MO— Chalice Press announced today recipients of 2011 Chalice Press Book Awards. The awards recognize outstanding seminarians – as determined by their respective schools – and come with a voucher allowing each recipient to select Chalice Press books for her or his personal library. Chalice Press encourages the schools to name award recipients based on whatever best identifies an “outstanding seminarian.”

Chalice Press publishes progressive Christian content for people who want to make a positive difference in the world. Chalice Press books often pertain to aspects of congregational leadership and faithful living, as well as textbooks in theology, Biblical studies, homiletics/preaching, and pastoral ministry.

Christian Board of Publication, a 501(c)3 nonprofit organization, publishes educational resources that support congregational ministries for inviting people into deeper relationship with God, equipping them as disciples of Jesus Christ, and sending them into ministries as the Holy Spirit calls them. Through its Chalice Press imprint, CBP publishes a variety of resources for pastors, seminarians, and laypersons. Charitable contributions are tax-deductible to the extent permitted by law. The Christian Church (Disciples of Christ) recognizes CBP as one of its general ministries.
