CBP/Chalice Press offers resources that invite people into deeper relationship with God, equip them as disciples of Jesus Christ, and send them into mission as the Holy Spirit calls them. Our policies and practices embody the Disciples' 2020 Vision, with particular attention to supporting the ministries of healthy congregations and those that lead them. CBP does not receive subsidy support from Disciples Mission Fund – we operate primarily on the sales of products and services we develop. CBP is financially sound and closed 2008 with a small surplus for the sixth consecutive year.

CBP/Chalice Press is well-positioned for the current downturn. Severe financial crises a decade ago allowed us to make decisions and develop the skills necessary for sustainability. We focus on agility and adaptability as core attributes. We pray together, to seek out God's leadings, and to follow with our best efforts. Although we are surely not immune to all that threatens, we are prepared, we are seasoned, and we are not afraid.

We are grateful to support the call of congregations to invite, equip, and send disciples of Jesus into ministry; we offer a growing variety of resources for the leadership and practice of evangelism, discipleship, and mission.
