

Council on Christian Unity of the Christian Church (Disciples of Christ)

Announces the

Joe A. and Nancy Vaughn Stalcup
2nd Century Visioning Conference on Christian Unity

“A Century of Witness, A Journey of Wholeness”

Goals: In celebration of the 100th anniversary of the Council on Christian Unity, the Conference will:

- Look to the past to see what we have learned about our ecumenical witness as a church;
- Look to our present context and involvements to understand the current issues, challenges and dynamics before our church in its ecumenical life and witness;
- Look to the future as we hope to make a significant contribution as Disciples of Christ to the whole of the ecumenical movement: locally, regionally, nationally, and internationally; and,
- Develop a statement on our ecumenical vision for the future, including recommendations to the CCU and to our whole church related to our ecumenical future as Disciples.

Dates: June 14 (2:00 pm) – June 17 (noon), 2010

Place: Mercy Conference and Retreat Center, St. Louis, Missouri

Registration fee: $400.00 (includes housing and meals)
[Financial assistance may be available upon application]

Space is limited to 40 persons

Application dead-line: March 31, 2010

For further information and application form, contact Robert Welsh at:

Council on Christian Unity Email address: rwelsh@ccu.disciples.org
P.O. Box 1986 Fax: 317-713-2588
Indianapolis, IN 46206

Application form available on CCU Website at <http://www.disciples.org/ccu/100thAnniversaryResources.html>